2. Software and Documentation License. The Software is licensed and not sold under this Agreement. Your license to use the Software (including professional use) is conditional upon payment of the license fees, if any. Subject to the terms and conditions herein, this Agreement grants You a personal, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable license that permits You and Your Authorised Users, collectively:

- (a) if the Software is BlackBerry Server Software:
  - (i) to install and use up to the number of copies (including virtual copies) of the Software corresponding to the fees for the Software paid to RIM or RIM's authorised distributor (and if no fees for the Software are payable to RIM or RIM's authorised distributor, then to install and use up to the number of copies otherwise authorised in writing by RIM or its authorised distributor); and
  - (ii) to enable up to the number of Handheld Products corresponding to the fees paid to RIM or RIM's authorised distributor to access the Software (and if no fees are payable to RIM or RIM's authorised distributor to enable Handheld Products to access the Software, then to enable up to the number of Handheld Products otherwise authorised in writing by RIM or its authorised distributor) (for example, if You are running "BlackBerry Enterprise Server" software, You must acquire client access licenses ("CALs") for the number of Handheld Products used in conjunction with that type of BlackBerry Server Software or otherwise obtain authorisation from RIM setting out the number of Authorised Users that are permitted to access that Software); and
- (b) if the Software is BlackBerry Handheld Software or BlackBerry PC Software and:
  - (i) if the Software is pre-installed on hardware, then, to use the single copy of that Software installed on the hardware; or
  - (ii) if the Software is not pre-installed on hardware, then, to install and use the Software on the number of units of the applicable hardware corresponding to the fees for the Software paid to RIM or RIM's authorised distributor (and if no fees are payable to RIM or RIM's authorised distributor for the Software, then to install and use up to the number of copies otherwise authorised in writing by RIM or its authorised distributor).

If You are acquiring the Software (and any associated CALs) on a subscription basis or as part of a free trial, then the license rights set out above apply only for the time period for which you have paid the requisite subscription fees or for the time period authorised by RIM or its authorised distributor, as the case may be).

In all cases, the license(s) granted under this Agreement permit You and Your Authorised Users to use or allow the use of the Software (including professional use) or to access the Services only for Your own internal or personal purposes and only as part of Your BlackBerry Solution. If an Authorised User also wishes to use the BlackBerry Handheld Software as part of another BlackBerry solution (i.e. a BlackBerry solution comprised in part of RIM proprietary products, software or services which You, or someone acting on Your behalf, have not obtained, installed or provisioned, and You are prepared to permit, but not accept responsibility for, such use, including professional use; "Other BlackBerry Solution"), then that use is not covered by this license agreement and You must require the Authorised User to enter into a separate license agreement with RIM entitling him or her to use the BlackBerry Handheld Software as part of the Other BlackBerry Solution. (e.g. if You are a corporation and Your employee wishes to use the BlackBerry Handheld Software, in conjunction with his or her personal BlackBerry Prosumer Services, and You are prepared to permit but not to take responsibility for such use, Your employee must, in addition to being an Authorised User under this Agreement, enter into a BlackBerry Software License Agreement with RIM, in his or her personal capacity, entitling use of the Software with this Other BlackBerry Solution. In most cases the BlackBerry Software License Agreement will be presented to the individual when he or she provisions the BlackBerry Handheld Software for use with BlackBerry Prosumer Services, and is otherwise available from RIM at www.blackberry.com/legal. Similarly if You have a Hosted BES Access Agreement in place, Your customers must enter into the Agreement in order to use the BlackBerry Enterprise Server Software as part of their BlackBerry Solution).

This Agreement and the licenses granted herein, do not imply any rights or entitlement to: (a) future upgrades or updates of the Software or Third Party Software; (b) in the case of BlackBerry Handheld Software on a Handheld Product, the ability to access applications, other than those included in the Software; or (c) acquire any new or modified Services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Software may include functionality to automatically check for updates or upgrades to the Software. Unless You, or a third party with whom You have an agreement to provide Your BlackBerry Solution or portions thereof to You, configures Your BlackBerry Solution to preclude the transmission or use of upgrades or updates to the Software, Third Party Software or Services, You hereby agree that RIM may (but is not obligated to) make such updates or upgrades available to You from time-to-time. If RIM, either directly or through a distributor (including Your Airtime Service Provider) makes any updates or upgrades to the Software or Services available to You, such updates or upgrades shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement unless the Software or Service(s) is expressly provided to You under other, or additional terms and conditions, in which case, if You accept the associated terms and conditions or use the update or upgrade, those other, or additional terms and conditions (which may include the payment of additional fees), shall apply.

You may not print, distribute or modify the Software, in whole or in part. Except to the extent that RIM is expressly precluded by law from prohibiting these activities, You may not copy, reproduce or in any other manner duplicate the Software, in whole or in part, except as authorised in this Agreement or in a separate written agreement between You and RIM. For the purposes of this provision "copy" or "reproduce" shall not include copying of statements and instructions of the Software that naturally occurs during normal program execution when used in accordance with and for the purposes described in the Documentation or in the course of making unmodified regular back-ups of the Software or of the computer or system on which the Software is installed, in accordance with industry standard business practices. You may not copy any Documentation or portion thereof unless specifically authorised in writing to do so by RIM. You may download a single copy of the Documentation from <http://docs.blackberry.com> solely for Your use under these terms and conditions and in conjunction with the use of the Software.

3. Use of Your BlackBerry Solution. You are responsible for all activities with respect to Your BlackBerry Solution undertaken by You and Your Authorised Users and You will ensure that:

- (a) You and Your Authorised Users only use Your BlackBerry Solution and any portion thereof, in accordance with this Agreement, all applicable laws and regulations, and the appropriate Documentation for Your BlackBerry Solution or portion thereof;
- (b) You have the right and authority to enter into this Agreement, either on Your own behalf or on behalf of a company or other entity, or minor, and You are over the age of majority;
- (c) Any information that is provided to RIM pursuant to this Agreement is true, accurate, current and complete;
- (d) You and Your Authorised Users will not knowingly, after making such inquiries as a reasonable person in Your or Your Authorised User's position would undertake, use or permit others to use Your BlackBerry Solution or portion thereof in isolation or with any other software or data in a manner that in RIM's judgment, acting reasonably, interferes with, degrades or adversely affects any software, system, network or data used by any person including RIM or an Airtime Service Provider or otherwise has a detrimental effect upon RIM, the RIM Group of Companies, an Airtime Service Provider or any of their respective customers or products or services, and You will immediately cease any such activity upon RIM delivering notice of same to You;
- (e) You and Your Authorised Users will not transmit harassing, abusive, libellous, illegal or deceptive messages, content or information using Your BlackBerry Solution or any portion thereof;
- (f) You and Your Authorised Users will not use Your BlackBerry Solution, or any part thereof, to commit or attempt to commit a crime or facilitate the commission of any crime or other illegal or tortious acts, including any breach of privacy or infringement, violation or misappropriation of any intellectual property rights and/or other proprietary rights of any third party (including, without limitation, copying and sharing Third Party Content for which You and Your Authorised Users do not have the rights to copy and share, or unlawfully circumventing any digital rights management protections);

- (g) You and Your Authorised Users will not sell, rent, lease, sub-license, or transfer, or attempt to sell, rent, lease, sub-license, or transfer, the Software or any part thereof, or Your entitlement to use the Services or any part thereof, (including operating a service bureau or equivalent service using the Software) to any other person, without the prior express written permission of RIM;
- (h) You and Your Authorised Users will not transfer, or attempt to transfer, any Software or any part thereof pre-installed by or on behalf of RIM on a RIM Product for use on any other device without the prior written permission of RIM.
- (i) You and Your Authorised Users will cooperate with RIM and provide information requested by RIM to assist RIM in investigating or determining whether there has been a breach of this Agreement and provide RIM or a RIM appointed independent auditor with access to the premises and computers where the RIM Products, Services or Software are or have been used and any associated records. You hereby authorise RIM to cooperate with: (i) law enforcement authorities in the investigation of suspected criminal violations; (ii) third parties in investigating acts in violation of this Agreement; and (iii) system administrators at Internet service providers, networks or computing facilities in order to enforce this Agreement. Such cooperation may include RIM disclosing Your or Your Authorised Users' username, IP address, or other personal information.

4. Third Party Items and Third Party Services. In connection with Your use of the BlackBerry Solution, You may acquire or obtain access to, Third Party Items and Third Party Services.

- (a) Required Third Party Items. You are responsible for ensuring that the Third Party Items and Third Party Services (including, without limitation, the computer systems, Internet connectivity, and Airtime Services) with which You choose to operate Your BlackBerry Solution meets RIM's minimum requirements, including, without limitation, the processing speed, memory, client software and the availability of dedicated Internet access required for Your BlackBerry Solution as set out in the Documentation, and that You and Your Authorised Users' use of such Third Party Items and/or Third Party Services with Your BlackBerry Solution is not in violation of any licenses, terms, conditions, laws, rules and/or regulations respecting the use of such Third Party Items and Third Party Services.
- (b) Airtime Services. In most instances, Your BlackBerry Solution will require a subscription for Airtime Services in order to use Your BlackBerry Solution and You must acquire this subscription through an Airtime Service Provider (or where available through RIM on behalf of an Airtime Service Provider) which Airtime Services shall be subject to the terms and conditions of such Airtime Service Provider. If You wish to obtain information about which Airtime Service Providers support Your BlackBerry Solution in Your location please contact RIM via legalinfo@rim.com.
- (c) Required Third Party Services. RIM may also provide You with items of BlackBerry Handheld Software that are specifically designed to enable You to access particular Third Party Services (e.g. My Space and MSN Messenger). Your Airtime Service Provider must permit You to access the Third Party Service through Your Handheld Product in order for You to do so. You may also require an account with the Third Party Service provider in order to use this BlackBerry Handheld Software with certain features of the Third Party Service, which account will be governed by the terms and conditions You agree to in relation to the Third Party Service.

If You are unsure whether RIM is the source of a website, content, item, product or service, please contact RIM at legalinfo@rim.com. If You deal with third parties through the Internet or in association with Third Party Services, take care to ensure You know who You are dealing with, and that You know the terms and conditions associated with those websites and any Third Party Services or Third Party Items, You may receive, including, without limitation, delivery and payment terms, terms of use, end user license terms, ability to return products, privacy terms, privacy settings, and security features to protect Your private information and to ensure Your personal safety. If You enter into agreements with third parties, You will be responsible for complying with the terms and conditions of those agreements.

5. Additional Terms for Third Party Software and Third Party Components. Without limiting the foregoing, the Software may include Third Party Components, and to enhance Your experience with Your BlackBerry Solution, Third Party Software may be provided in conjunction with RIM Products or Software when originally shipped by RIM or may subsequently be transmitted, distributed or otherwise made available to You from time-to-time. Your use of the Third Party Software and Third Party Components (including any updates or upgrades thereto) may be subject to separate or additional terms and conditions. These separate or additional terms and conditions, if any, will be made available in a text file accompanying the Software and/or, in the case of Third Party Software, may be made available when You use or install the Third Party Software for the first time. With respect to Third Party Software provided to You by RIM, RIM is only able to provide such software with Your understanding, acknowledgment and agreement that such software is: (a) provided as a convenience to You only; and (b) if it is not accompanied by a separate software license, it is subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement as though it were Software, except that in all cases it is provided by RIM "AS IS" and "AS AVAILABLE" with no express or implied conditions, endorsements, guarantees, representations or warranties. If You wish to obtain Third Party Software on other terms, You should acquire this Third Party Software directly from its suppliers. In no event shall such separate license agreements or additional terms and conditions between You and the supplier be binding on RIM or impose any additional obligations, or obligations inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, upon RIM whatsoever. To the extent that any particular Third Party Component is covered by additional terms and conditions that provide You with rights to use, copy, distribute, or modify all or part of such Third Party Component broader than the rights afforded You under this Agreement for the Software then, solely to the extent You can exercise such broader rights without breaching the terms of this Agreement for the remainder of the Software, You obtain the benefit of such broader rights.

6. Desktop Cryptography Support. The BlackBerry Handheld Software may include software modules that allow users to extend certain of their existing desktop-based cryptography implementations (such as S/MIME Version 3.0 (or subsequent) or implementations based on the RFC 2440 standards, such as PGP) (each a "Desktop Cryptography Implementation") wirelessly to certain Handheld Products. Certain Desktop Cryptography Implementations may require you to first obtain such Desktop Cryptography Implementations from a third party vendor. RIM does not provide any portion of the cryptography infrastructure required for the Desktop Cryptography Implementation itself and RIM takes no responsibility for the selection, acquisition, implementation, performance or non-performance, support, accuracy or reliability of any portion of Your cryptography infrastructure, including, without limitation, the selection, accuracy or reliability of the infrastructure software, or any trust signatures, public keys, third party certificates and related services, or any authentication or authentication method, used in conjunction with the cryptography infrastructure. You are responsible for ensuring that You comply with any terms and conditions, rules and regulations respecting Your use of the applicable cryptography infrastructure, certificates, public keys, and any other services or software You may use in conjunction with Your particular Desktop Cryptography Implementation. RIM HAS NO LIABILITY WHATSOEVER FOR ANY ISSUE ARISING FROM OR RELATING TO YOUR DESKTOP CRYPTOGRAPHY IMPLEMENTATION.

7. Intellectual Property. Neither You nor Your Authorised Users acquire hereby any ownership right, title or interest in or to any intellectual property or other proprietary rights, including patents, designs, trademarks, copyright, database rights or rights in any confidential information or trade-secrets, in or relating to Your BlackBerry Solution or any part thereof. You also do not acquire any license rights in or related to Your BlackBerry Solution or any portion thereof, other than the rights expressly licensed to You under this Agreement or in another mutually agreed upon written agreement that You may have with RIM. No title and/or any right of possession to the RIM Product(s) (if any) is granted by virtue of this Agreement. Any rights not expressly granted herein are expressly reserved. For clarity, notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, in no event shall the licenses granted in the Software herein extend, or be construed to extend, to the use of any Third Party Services or Third Party Items either on a standalone basis or in conjunction with Your BlackBerry Solution, and, without limiting the foregoing, in no event shall the licenses granted hereunder be construed such that any supplier of such Third Party Services or Third Party Items be able to successfully assert that use of such Third Party Services or Third Party Items either in conjunction with all or a part of the BlackBerry Solution or on a standalone basis are licensed under RIM's patents by virtue of the fact that the Software is licensed hereunder. The Software, including any copies You make of the Software, is only licensed, and not sold, to You, and the Software, all Documentation and any site(s) which allow You to access any Services are protected by Canadian, U.S. and international copyright and patent laws and international treaty provisions. There are severe penalties, both civil and criminal, for intellectual property infringement. You agree that nothing in this Agreement shall adversely affect any rights and recourse to any remedies, including, without limitation, to injunctive relief, that RIM may have under any applicable laws relating to the protection of RIM's intellectual property or other proprietary rights.

8. Cisco Non-Assert Pass-through. If Your BlackBerry Solution contains any Cisco Technology, in consideration of Your right to use the Cisco Technology, You agree not to assert any patent rights related to the Cisco Technology against Cisco, Cisco's customers, Cisco's distributors or licensees of the Cisco Technology for making, having made, using, selling, offering for sale, or importing products complying or implementing the Cisco Technology. For the purposes of this Agreement, "Cisco Technology" means software, Lightweight Enhanced Authentication Protocol ("LEAP"), LEAP specifications, Cisco Client Extensions technology, technical information, and algorithms, as they solely relate to the LEAP and/or Cisco Client Extensions, as appropriate.

- (a) You acknowledge that the RIM Products and Software include cryptographic technology that may be subject to export, import, and/or use controls by Government Authorities (as hereinafter defined) by way of law or regulation. You agree that the RIM Products and Software will not be exported, imported, used, transferred, or re-exported except in compliance with the laws and regulations of the national and/or other (sub-national and/or supranational) government authorities with authority over the country(ies) and/or territory(ies) from which the RIM Products and Software are being exported or to which the RIM Products and Software are being imported (collectively, the "Government Authority(ies)"). Without limitation, You agree the RIM Products and Software will not be exported: (i) to any country on Canada's Area Control List; (ii) to any country subject to UN Security Council embargo or action; (iii) contrary to Canada's Export Control List Item 5505; (iv) to countries subject to U.S. economic sanctions and embargoes; and (v) to persons or entities prohibited from receiving U.S. exports or U.S.-origin items. If You have any questions regarding this Section, please contact RIM at legalinfo@rim.com. You hereby represent that: (A) to the best of Your knowledge You are eligible to receive the RIM Product(s) and Software under applicable law; (B) You will not use the RIM Products and Software in the development, production, handling, maintenance, storage, detection, identification or dissemination of chemical, biological or nuclear weapons or their missile delivery systems, or of materials or equipment that could be used in such weapons or their missile delivery systems, or resell or export to anyone or any entity involved in such activity; and (C) You will ensure that Authorised Users use the RIM Product(s) and Software in accordance with the foregoing restrictions. Notwithstanding any agreement with a third-party or any provision of law, regulation or policy, if You are any agency of the government of the United States of America, then Your rights in respect of the Software shall not exceed the rights provided under this Agreement, unless expressly agreed upon by RIM in a written agreement between You and RIM and signed by a Chief Operating Officer or Chief Executive Officer of RIM.

- (b) You hereby agree to indemnify RIM, the RIM Group of Companies and the Airtime Service Provider from any claims, actions, liability or expenses (including reasonable lawyers' fees and costs) resulting from Your failure to act in accordance with the acknowledgements, agreements, and representations in this Section.

10. Security. Your BlackBerry Solution may utilize a level of encryption data security for communications between Your Handheld Product and the computer system with which it operates. You agree to assume full responsibility for the establishment of appropriate security measures to control access to Your Handheld Product and such computer system.

11. Confidentiality and No Reverse Engineering. You acknowledge and agree that the Software was: (a) developed at considerable time and expense by RIM and/or the RIM Group of Companies; and (b) that the Software and associated CALs contain confidential information including the trade-secrets of RIM, the RIM Group of Companies and their respective suppliers. This Agreement gives You no right to obtain from RIM or its distributors any source code for the Software, and, except to the extent that RIM is expressly precluded by law from prohibiting these activities, You agree that neither You nor Your Authorised Users will alter, modify, adapt, create derivative works, translate, deface, or Reverse Engineer the Software and/or associated CALs, or attempt to do so, or permit, acquiesce, authorise or encourage any other party to do the same. For the purpose of this Agreement, "Reverse Engineer" includes any act of reverse engineering, translating, disassembling, decompiling, decrypting or deconstructing (including any aspect of "dumping of RAM/ROM or persistent storage", "cable or wireless link sniffing", or "black box" reverse engineering) data, software (including interfaces, protocols, and any other data included in or used in conjunction with programs that may or may not technically be considered software code), service, or hardware or any method or process of obtaining or converting any information, data or software from one form into a human-readable form.

12. Term. This Agreement shall be effective upon Your agreeing to be bound by the terms of this Agreement (as described in the preamble above) and shall continue in effect unless terminated in accordance with the provisions set out herein.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if subsequent to Your entering into this Agreement, RIM transmits or otherwise makes available to You, any additional BlackBerry Handheld Software that is free of charge and is designed to enable You to access Third Party Services, then, because of the reliance of that BlackBerry Handheld Software on the Third Party Services, RIM reserves the right, but has no obligation, to terminate Your license to that free BlackBerry Handheld Software, at any time, for any reason, without notice to You; however, if feasible, RIM will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide You with notice of termination.

13. Remedies and Termination for Default.

- (a) If You or Your Authorised Users breach this Agreement, RIM may, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided by this Agreement or by law, immediately terminate this Agreement and any other license agreement between You and RIM for any other portion of Your BlackBerry Solution used by You or Your Authorised Users with the Software; and/or cease to provide any Service(s) to You or Your Authorised Users in relation to Your BlackBerry Solution. Where You have provided RIM with accurate contact information, RIM shall provide You with notice of termination.

- (b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, You will be deemed to be in breach of this Agreement and RIM will have the right to terminate this Agreement upon providing notice if:
  - (i) You or Your Authorised Users fail to comply with or perform a term or condition herein;
  - (ii) You materially contravene any other license agreement or terms of service that You may have with RIM for any portion of Your BlackBerry Solution used by You or Your Authorised Users with the Software, including, without limitation, the terms of any such click-wrap or shrink-wrap agreement that You have agreed to on a RIM website or otherwise;
  - (iii) You or any of Your Authorised Users interfere with RIM's customer service or business operations; or
  - (iv) any monthly or other periodic fees or costs associated with Your use of Your BlackBerry Solution are not paid within thirty (30) days of their becoming due.
- (c) In addition, RIM may terminate this Agreement and/or immediately cease to provide the Service(s) without any liability whatsoever to You or Your Authorised Users if RIM is prevented from providing any portion or all of any Service or from selling Airtime Services, if applicable, by any law, regulation, requirement or ruling issued in any form whatsoever by judicial or other governmental body, or if a notice from a government agency or department indicates either RIM or the Airtime Service Provider is not permitted to provide any portion or all of the Airtime Services, if applicable.
- (d) Nothing herein shall be construed to require RIM to seek a waiver of any such law, rule, regulation, or restriction, or seek judicial review or appeal of any court order. RIM shall not have any liability to You or Your Authorised Users arising from or related to the termination of this Agreement in accordance with this Section.

14. Effect of Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement, however caused, or if Your subscription or a free trial for the Software expires: (a) You will immediately discontinue all use of the Software (or item of Software for which the license has expired) and return all copies of such Software that are in Your and/or Your Authorised Users' possession or control; and (b) RIM shall have the right to block any transmission of data to and from such Software, without notice to You. In the event of the termination of this Agreement by RIM pursuant to provisions of this Agreement, You shall pay to RIM all fees (including reasonable lawyers' fees and costs) and related expenses expended or incurred by RIM in the enforcement of its rights hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, because of the nature of Software, it may be impossible to return the Software because the Software is integrated into hardware that you own (such as a Handheld Product) and/or the Software may be installed on a desktop or server such that all you could return is a further reproduction of the Software. In such cases, please contact RIM at legalinfo@rim.com for further instructions.

15. Indemnity/Liability. You shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless RIM, the RIM Group of Companies, RIM's affiliates, suppliers, successors, agents, authorised distributors and assigns and each of their directors, officers, employees and independent contractors (each a "RIM Indemnified Party") from any claims, damages, losses, costs or expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable lawyers' fees and costs) incurred by a RIM Indemnified Party arising from: (a) infringement of patents or other intellectual property or proprietary rights arising from combining with or using any device (other than a Handheld Product), system or service in connection with Your BlackBerry Solution or any portion thereof; (b) damages arising from Your breach of any of the following Sections of Agreement: "Desktop Cryptography Support" (Section 6), "Use of Your BlackBerry Solution" (Section 3),

No remedy herein conferred upon RIM is intended to be, nor shall it be construed to be, exclusive of any other remedy provided herein or as allowed by law or in equity, but all such remedies shall be cumulative.

16. Limited Warranties.

(a) Software.

- (i) If during the ninety (90) day period following delivery of the Software to You (the "Warranty Period"), the Software as made available by RIM or any RIM authorised distributor is not capable of performing the functions described in the standard end user Documentation ("Specifications") when used as specified by RIM in the Documentation applicable to the specific type and version of the Software in conjunction with other unaltered portions of Your BlackBerry Solution, RIM will, at Your option, either make reasonable efforts to correct or provide You with a workaround for such problem (which fix or workaround may be provided to You at RIM's reasonable discretion in one of a variety of forms, including in the course of telephonic or email customer support provided to You, in a generally available software fix release, on RIM's web site or in any other form of which RIM advises You) or provide You with a refund for the one time fees paid by You for the applicable Software if You cease to use the Software and the media on which the Software was provided to You and all packaging related thereto is returned to RIM in accordance with Your normal warranty return mechanism (which may be through Your Airtime Service Provider, if applicable, or point of purchase) within the Warranty Period together with proof of purchase.
- (ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, updates, and upgrades provided to You free of charge are provided "AS IS" and without warranty of any kind.
- (iii) Updates and upgrades, for which You have paid additional license fees, shall be subject to the warranty set out above for a period of ninety (90) days from the date that the upgrade for any Software is delivered to You.
- (iv) The above obligation will not apply if the failure of the Software to perform the functions described in the Specifications is due to: (A) use of the Software in a manner inconsistent with any of Your obligations set out in the Sections of this Agreement entitled, "Required Third Party Items" (Section 4(a)), "Airtime Services" (Section 4(b)), "Required Third Party Services" (Section 4(c)), "Desktop Cryptography Support" (Section 6), "Use of Your BlackBerry Solution" (Section 3), "Software and Documentation License" (Section 2), "Export, Import and Use Restrictions and U.S. Government Licenses" (Section 9) or "Confidentiality and No Reverse Engineering" (Section 11) or in a manner inconsistent with the instructions, including the safety instructions, specified by RIM in the Documentation applicable to the specific type and version of the Software; or (B) a malfunction or other problem related to any hardware (including those arising from defective Third Party Handheld Products), network, software or communication system other than other portions of Your BlackBerry Solution; or (C) to any external causes affecting the Software, including the media upon which the Software is provided, such as accident, disaster, electrostatic discharge, fire, flood, lightning, water or wind, correction of errors attributable to software other than the Software, or defects due to repairs or modifications not authorised by RIM.

  - (vi) There is no warranty on free after market downloads of additional items of Software (which constitute upgrades to the Software build acquired with the Handheld Product), or on free Server Software. If any item of such Software fails to operate in accordance with its Documentation within the ninety (90) days following the date You install it on Your Handheld Product or computer as applicable, You may contact RIM and RIM shall identify the support, if any, that is available for such Software (which support may be provided to You at RIM's reasonable discretion in one of a variety of forms, including in the course of telephonic or email customer support provided to You, in a generally available software fix or release, on RIM's website or in any other form of which RIM advises You).
  - (vii) You acknowledge and agree that where such Software is designed to facilitate Your access to Third Party Items or Third Party Services, RIM MAY HAVE LIMITED OR NO CONTROL OVER THE FUNCTIONALITY OR PERFORMANCE OR NON-PERFORMANCE OF SUCH THIRD PARTY ITEMS OR THIRD PARTY SERVICES, AND MAY NOT BE ABLE TO PROVIDE A FIX OR WORKAROUND FOR A PROBLEM THAT YOU IDENTIFY WITH THIS SOFTWARE.
  - (viii) This Section sets out RIM's only obligations and Your sole remedies in respect of the Software and any defects, errors, problems or breach of the warranty for the Software set out herein.
- (b) Product(s). The limited warranty, if any, for the RIM Product(s) ("Limited Product Warranty") is set forth in the applicable Documentation. The Limited Product Warranty is the exclusive warranty for any RIM Product sold under the terms of this Agreement and sets out Your sole remedies in respect of the RIM Products and any breach of the Limited Product Warranty. By indicating Your acceptance of this Agreement as provided above, You acknowledge that You have read the Limited Product Warranty and agree to its terms. For clarity, except to the extent required by applicable law, the "Limited Product Warranty" applies only to new RIM Product(s) and only the balance of such warranty (if any) applies to any refurbished RIM Product(s).

17. Post-Warranty Support. If You wish to obtain support from RIM after the expiry of the warranty period, please contact RIM at sales@blackberry.com (or such other location listed on <http://www.blackberry.com/legal/>) or Your Airtime Service Provider. If You have a third party hosting the Software on Your behalf (a "Hosting Party") and You wish the Hosting Party to obtain support for the Software from RIM on Your behalf, then either You or the Hosting Party must have a support agreement in place with RIM for the specific items of Software as required for Your number of Authorised Users, and You must update RIM from time to time as to the Software hosted on Your behalf by sending an email to sales@blackberry.com (or such other location listed on <http://www.blackberry.com/legal/>) identifying the Software, the number of copies You have licensed, along with the SRP IDs and CALs as applicable. No dispute between the Parties, or involving any person but You, may be joined or combined together, without the prior written consent of RIM. This Agreement may be amended at any time upon mutual agreement by the Parties. You will provide RIM with the assurances and official documents that RIM periodically may request to verify Your compliance with this obligation.

27. Amalgamation of Agreements. In order to ensure: (a) consistent terms apply to BlackBerry PC Software, BlackBerry Server Software and BlackBerry Handheld Software, when each is used as part of Your BlackBerry Solution; and (b) clarity with respect to which license terms apply to BlackBerry Handheld Software when used as part of Your BlackBerry Solution, regardless of the manner in which You provisioned that BlackBerry Handheld Software, BY INDICATING YOUR ACCEPTANCE TO THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT IN THE MANNER SET OUT ABOVE, YOU ARE ALSO AGREEING THAT THIS AGREEMENT REPLACES AND SUPERSEDES THE PREVIOUSLY EXISTING BLACKBERRY END USER/SOFTWARE LICENSE AND BLACKBERRY ENTERPRISE SERVER SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENTS AND ANY PREVIOUSLY EXISTING BLACKBERRY SOFTWARE LICENSE AGREEMENTS, TO THE EXTENT SUCH AGREEMENTS ARE OTHERWISE APPLICABLE, AS OF THE DATE OF YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT, TO ANY SOFTWARE THAT FORMS PART OF YOUR BLACKBERRY SOLUTION.

All references to the BlackBerry End User/Software License or BlackBerry Enterprise Server Software License Agreement in other agreements or documentation that You have with RIM for Your BlackBerry Solution, shall be deemed to be references to this BlackBerry Solution License Agreement (except to the extent, such reference would not make sense in the context, e.g. where, as in this provision, a distinction is intended to be made between the previously existing agreements and the BlackBerry Software License Agreements, references to the previously existing agreements would not be deemed to be references to the BlackBerry Software License Agreements).
